PRICE THREE CENTS

GENERAL LOGAN.

Declines the Presidency of the Senate,

Although His Republican Colleagues Tendered it to Him With One Voice.

The Caucus Adjourns Without Action-- Senator Allison Now Named for the Place.

GEN. LOGAN

Was Offered the Senate Presidency.

By Telegram to THE SENTINEL.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 4.—At a republican senatorial caucus held to-day the nomination of president pro tempore was unanimously tendered to Senator Logan, but he declined the nomination and thereupon the caucus adjourned. The president to-day appointed Jas. W. Porch, of Missouri, to be United States consul general at Mexico. Senator Sherman presided. Senator Edmunds nominated Mr. Logan and moved he be elected by acclamation. This was done. Mr. Logan made a feeling speech of thanks, but declined, saying the place was not to his taste and he believed he could be more useful in his present position.

The president to-day appointed Nathaniel Newburgh, appraiser of merchandise at the port of Cincinnati, Ohio; Thomas J. Hamilton, of Washington territory, United States marshal for the territory of Washington.

WASHINGTON, D. C., December 3.—Secretary Bayard received to-day, a telegram from Mr. Buck, minister of the United States to Peru, informing him that, after three days fighting, in the streets of Lima, a truce was yesterday concluded, through the good offices of the diplomatic corps, Iglesias and Caeceres both agreeing to renounce the executive power. Three commissioners from each side, will arrange for a provisional government.

CABINET MEETING.

The cabinet met at the usual hour to-day, and remained in session about two hours. All the members were present except the secretary of the navy, who had gone to New York. The president's message and other matters to be submitted to congress, were considered.

SOME NICE FAT TAKES.

The president late this afternoon made the following appointments: Lafayette Dawson, United States marshal for the district of Alabama; Wm. G. Longford, of Walla Walla, to be associate justice of the supreme court, of the territory of Washington; Chas. R. Pollard, of Delphi, Indiana, to be associate justice of the supreme court, of Montana.

The president to-day appointed Wm. W. Anderson, Kentucky agent for the Indians of the Crow creek and lower Brule agencies, Dakota.

REPORT OF THE SUPERVISING ARCHITECT.

A. M. Bell, supervising architect, in his annual report says there is now in course of construction, buildings ranging in cost from $25,000 to $200,000 each, calling for a total expenditure of $8,511,400. The expenditures for the year, on this account, have aggregated $2,438,709. Mr. Bell says that congress fixes the limits of the cost of buildings, without a full knowledge of the accommodations required, and that the limits in many cases are so low as to make it impossible to provide the minimum accommodation, even though the cheapest material be used. He suggests that before authorizing the construction of buildings, congress have estimates, through this bureau, of the cost of appropriate structures. This, he says, would expedite the work and save money.

Mexican Mud Pie.

By Telegram to THE SENTINEL.

ST. LOUIS, December 3.—The following special to the Globe Democrat gives the latest news of the Mexican revolution:

Monterey Nueva Leon, Mexico. The independent party, so called, in Nueva Leon, is gaining strength. It has published a paper in this city, in which General Lazaro Garza Ayala, the distinguished lawyer, is announced as its local president, and General Prado Martinez, as vice-president. These eminent men, under the cover of legal procedure, bitterly oppose the present state government while Manuel Rodriguez, whose followers now number 600 men, unquestionably co-operating with them, has resorted to sterner revolutionary measures and is in arms, having as heretofore stated, routed Maurs Sepulveda, the ad interim governor at Garcia, and has advanced since to Soato Catarina, within seven miles of the state capital, where he is adding hourly to his forces. Meantime Sepulveda has fallen back to the northward, has rallied his scattered forces, and has the promise of support at Bustamante, Vellaloma and Lampasas. He is looked for at the former point to-night and great preparations are being made to give him a grand welcome at Lampasas. Col. Joan Fuenzala, chief of the staff to Genl. Narrago, will join Sepulveda with 600 men. However, before they can attack Rodriguez, he may acquire sufficient strength to take and occupy Monterey. The federal forces remain inactive still. It was believed that the general government intended to permit the disorder to remain until it would be clearly justified, by reason of the impotency of the state, to intervene and proclaim military rule, so as to get the state under the immediate control of the general government. Late advices, however, indicate that an understanding has been reached between General Garza Garcia St. Trevano and Naranjo and Judge Davalo, now in Mexico City and the president.

THE RETURNS

Are Worked for a Little Satisfaction.

By Telegram to THE SENTINEL.

LONDON, Dec. 4.—The Standard gives up all hope of a tory majority. Its sole comfort is the reflection that Mr. Gladstone's majority will not be sufficient to enable him to safely handle the Irish question.

LONDON, Dec. 4.—The total returns from the elections for members of parliament received up to 2 o'clock this afternoon shows 274 liberals; 315 conservatives, and 53 nationalists elected.

LONDON, December 3.—Returns received up to 2 o'clock this afternoon, show that thus far 252 Liberals; 203 Tories and 46 Nationalists have been elected.

Returns received up to 5 o'clock this afternoon, show the election of 261 Liberals; 210 Tories and 51 Nationalists.

Two survivors of the German bark Fidelio, from Wilmington, for Wolgast, reported to have been found on the beam ends, have been rescued in St. George's channel and landed at Belfast.

In Tottenham, Middlesex, Mr. Corn, who was junior lord of the admiralty in Mr. Gladstone's government, has been defeated, making the tenth member of that government defeated at this election.

LONDON, December 3.—The Bulgarian government has sent another circular letter to the powers. It points out that Serbia first declared war; that after reverses, Bulgarian valor forced the Servians to retire to their own territory; that despite the armistice agreed to, the Servians continued hostilities against Widdin; and that it was owing to threats made by the Austrian minister at Belgrade, that Alexander agreed to the armistice and invited Serbia to appoint delegates to arrange matters. It asks the powers to appreciate the fact that Bulgarians when victorious, exercised moderation at the risk of enabling the Servians to recover their strength. Meanwhile Bulgaria awaits Serbia's counter proposals.

NISSA, December 3.—An order has been issued by the government appointing Colonel Harvalorech commander in chief of the Servian armies. In official circles it is thought that the resumption of hostilities is certain, owing to Prince Alexander's refusal of the terms proposed by Serbia. It is stated that fighting has already resumed.

HAVANA, December 3.—A military officer and eight subordinates in the district of Manicaragua, province of Santa Clara, attempted to incite a revolt, crying "Viva La Republica." Troops were sent in pursuit, and so far, one of the men has been killed and two have surrendered.

BERLIN, December 3.—The order of expulsion of the German Americans on the Island Forth, has again been suspended. Mr. Pendleton, the United States minister, having intervened in the matter.

Enoch Cox, store keeper of the Pittsburg shops, was presented with a life size portrait of himself by a few of his many friends to-day as a recognition of his birth day. Enoch is forty-three years old to-day. To say he was delighted was drawing it mild.

HONOR ENOUGH.

Department Commander Foster Not a Candidate Again--The Work He Accomplished.

The annual meeting of the encampment of the Department of Indiana will be held at Indianapolis, February 17 and 18, 1886. Department Commander Foster refuses to allow his name to be used for re-election. Among those mentioned to succeed him are W. H. Armstrong, ex-mayor of Terre Haute, and Will C. Davis, of Indianapolis.

Under Department Commander Foster the Department of Indiana has reached a larger membership than ever before. It now numbers over 17,000 members in good standing. A gain of about 900 was made during the quarter ending September 30.

The Grand Army of the Republic has spent for the relief of needy comrades, during the past three years, the handsome sum of $500,000. Old soldiers who stand aloof from this magnificent organization, have had no part in this good work.

A NEW PHASE.

Lecherous Fellows Filling the Prison North.

Thirty-one new convicts were received at the northern penitentiary at Michigan City, during the month of November. Harry Frances remarks that a careful examination of the records of the prison will disclose the fact that the heinous crimes of rape and incest are rapidly on the increase throughout Indiana, and more serious punishment than imprisonment should be prescribed for the offenses. Within the past month no less than five out of thirty-one criminals incarcerated at the penitentiary were convicted on these charges. While the aggregate term of twenty-two years for the above cases seem to be heavy enough in the minds of parents, such fiends should be hung. A nomenclature would develop the fact that a surprisingly large percentage of the people are in favor of capital punishment for this offense.

The winter days are near at hand
When silently through all the land
The snow will fall:
Its dazzling whiteness all around
Will drift above the frozen ground,
Deep over all.

Then the young lover hastes will make,
And in a narrow outer take
His girl to ride
And she will laugh, blithe and jocose,
Beneath the buffalo struggled to
Up to his side.

Meanwhile at home his aged father
Will, to snivel out a path,
The drifts attack;
And while Love holds the youth in thrall
The poor old man at home will al-

Origin of a Club Name.

"It was curious," remarked Fogg, "how the new Boston club received its name."
"Why, how was that?" asked two or three of the boys. "Why, you see," said Fogg, removing his cigar, and then remounting it for a half-dozen leisurely puffs; "why, you see the members were sitting around the table, each one thinking with all his might for an appropriate name for the club. It was so very quiet that the servant outside thought the gentlemen had all gone home.
At all events, he suddenly opened the door,
and addressing his fellow-servant within,
uttered these remarkable words: "All gone, Quinn?" It came like an inspiration. It seemed the very name for which all were searching. It was immediately and unanimously voted that the new club should be
"The Algonquin."—Boston Transcript.

there were probably grounds for complaint

Julia—Did you hear that Maud B. was flirting awfully there?

Alice—Yes, Mr. W. was awful handsome and was an awful good waiter.

Julia—I have got an awful headache today.

Alice—I am awful sorry, I am going to Blank's to-day; they have got some awful cheap handkerchiefs there.

Julia—I can't go to-day, I have an awful quantity of them now.

Alice—What awful people you meet in the cars now!

Julia—Yes, awful, but here is Blank's, good-bye; I am awful glad I met you.—
Boston Budget.

Hotel Clerk—I cordially welcome you to our humble hospitality, my dear sir, though it deeply humiliates me to tell you that the sky-parlor is the only room at your disposal, just now.

ber 4-11-44, under the roof!")

A Well-Taken Exception.

A German peasant family had made all their arrangements to emigrate to the United States. The day before the family was to take its departure the eldest son, Hans, who was an enormous eater, intimated that he did not care to go West.

"Has some village maiden beguiled thee to remain behind?" asked the father.

"Nothing of the kind."

"Why then dost thou not wish to go with us?"

"I've been talking with the school master and—"

"Well, what did he say?"

"He says that when it is twelve o'clock with us here in Germany that—"

"That what?"

"When it is twelve o'clock here with us, that in America it is nine o'clock in the evening."

"I don't want to go to a place where I have to wait that long for my dinner;" and the poor fellow completely broke down at the mere thought of it.—Bremer Humorist.

Elevated Railroad Brakeman—Ladies and gentlemen, will you kindly accelerate your motion as much as possible? Our stoppage here is necessarily short.

(Old Style—"Step lively, there! This train can't stop here all day.")

Mrs. Pugnitive's Comments.

"I see that the New York Central Railroad has paid a Mr. Henry A. Green eighteen hundred dollars because a baggage-master cracked his Stradivarius," said Mrs. Pugnitive, as she looked up over her spectacles. "Well, I presume that was none too much, and perhaps not enough.
It may make an imbecility of the poor man.
I don't know just what part of the head the Stradivarius is, but will never forget how hard it was when I studied anatomy, physiology and hlogimny, to understand about the skull and brain—the Sarah Brum, Sarah Bellum, and such things—" and the old lady was quite mortified when told that Stradivarius was a choice brand of fiddle.

"My!" said she; "the idea of paying so much for just cracking a fiddle, when some concentrated glue will probably make it nearly as good as new. I wouldn't give eighteen hundred dollars for all the fiddles this side of Topaz."—Peck's Sun.

The Advantages of Travel.

"Hello, Josh," said one farmer to another; "that lightning rod feller didn't pull the wool over your eyes like he did with Mose Timpon, did he?"

"John Eckert, of the celebrated '89' cigar factory, of Fort Wayne, is in the city to-day," says the Warsaw Times apparently enveloped in a cloud of smoke.

The famous Talmage lectures at the Temple December 15. Even the editors will crowd the rest of humanity for seats to listen to this divine, famed the world over.

Engine 198, a new class I engine, will be turned out of the Pittsburg shops to-morrow. After trial it will be sent to the eastern division. Another one is to be built this month.

Frank Cheveron to Lewis Beechold, lot 40, Lillie's addition, for $800; George Weisenberger to Bennett B. Evans, lot 6, Rockhill's addition, for $3,000. These are the real estate transfers.

Every one interested in the cause of temperance is cordially invited to attend the meeting of the Fort Wayne Blue Ribbon club, at temperance headquarters on Harrison street, this evening at 7:30 o'clock.

"Rev. J. K. Waltz, of the Berry Street M. E. church, Fort Wayne, occupied Rev. C. G. Hudson's pulpit Sunday morning and evening. He was the guest of J. F. Elliott while in the city," says the Kokomo Dispatch.

Will Huestis has severed his connection with James Secor & Co., of Toledo, to travel for A. C. Trentman. Frank Falker will quit the service of Mr. Trentman January 1, to travel for a patent drive well in which he is interested.

B. B. Fowler, of Fort Wayne, will speak on temperance at the opera house, Wednesday evening, December 9.—William Rawles, of Lima, and Frank Rawles, of Fort Wayne, spent a few hours in Lagrange, on Friday," says the Lagrange Standard.

Ed Osborne, an antediluvian toper, stood before the mayor this morning. Osborne had not been in the toils since C. A. Munson was sheriff. He said he would reform and proposed to shake saloon men and their tempting stuff. This story is oft told, and Edward is behind the bars.

Whitfield, known as "the man of 100 faces," as a facial contortionist he has no superior, and probably no equal. He is also a clever elocutionist and dialectician, thereby giving greater effect to his characters. His manipulation of his features was remarkable. He will make his first appearance in this city at the Academy of Music Monday, Dec. 21.

We learn from the News that George J. E. Mayer has taken charge of Charles H. Nix's hotel at Denver. The hotel is called the Albany. Mr. George J. E. Mayer, who has been studying under George Sweet, of Chicago, has been engaged at a handsome salary as contraalto by the Rockford, Ill., Congregational society in the largest church of that city.

Yesterday afternoon a man, whose name could not be learned, was hauling a drag load of household goods south on Broadway and when near the Wabash crossing a freight train came along and the horse became frightened and ran away, overturning the load on the driver who was badly hurt. The horse plunged into a ditch and two of his legs were broken. He was shot to end his misery.

Judge L. M. Ninde attended court at Huntington yesterday.

Island Park Assembly people are paying off their indebtedness in full.

Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Becker, visited their daughter, Mrs. Moses Steifel, at Angola this week.

The SENTINEL collectors will call on all subscribers to-morrow. We trust those in arrears will respond promptly.

The mayor and members of the council visited the Seventh ward engine house to-day. The building will be accepted.

On account of the Hendricks memorial services the railroad men's meeting at the Railroad Reading rooms on Sabbath afternoon will be omitted.

The city council, of Bluffton, has appropriated $200, to sink a well at some suitable place as an experiment in the establishment of a system of water works.

Judge E. V. Long, while intending to start for Santa Fe, New Mexico. Monday last, deferred his departure till Tuesday evening, going via the Wabash Valley route.

With the approach of the holidays the express companies are already experiencing a marked increase in business. From this time until after January 1, it will continue to grow heavier.

The small boys who robbed the Wabash freight cars in the house track at Lafayette, Sunday afternoon, of a quantity of smoking tobacco, are known, but the company refuses to prosecute, the police saying they can do nothing with them for the offense.

Pension Agent Zollinger has taken three clerks from Allen county, B. F. McCarthy, Henry Zollinger, of Adams township, and George Young, of Perry township. The colonel should give his staunch and warm friend, P. J. Fallon, a place.

Wm. P. Wells, who has so long filled with marked ability and utmost dignity the professorship in the law department of Ann Arbor university, has sent in his resignation to take effect at the end of the year. This will interest graduates of the school in Fort Wayne.

Will H. Kernan, editor of the Northwood, (Da.) Headlight, sends us a copy of his paper with a poem, lamenting the death of Mr. Hendricks. Mr. Kernan turns over T. V. Powderly, of K. of L. fame. Kernan is as erratic as ever and his poems are just as tart as they used to be.

The Rev. Dr. Timage has delivered a tender eulogy upon the life and character of Vice President Hendricks. Dr. Talmage can say things so nicely and his lecture on "Bright and Happy Homes," at the Temple in this city, December 15, will be a word picture from a master mind.

C. H. Aldrich has returned from Toledo, where he legally adjusted the differences between Hugh Heuston & Co. and the Masonic Temple association. The SENTINEL noted a month ago that the defaulting contractors would pay $5,000 and a week later told of the acceptance of the offer by the new Temple lessees.

Route Agent Hall Donly, of the Wabash, was in Indianapolis Friday, where he successfully passed his final examination and received a permanent certificate. He threw 1,950 softballs in the state, in one hour and forty minutes, with but three errors, averaging a percent almost perfect. This record is hard to excel.

"John Koch, of Fred Eckart's pork packing house, Fort Wayne, one of the jolliest drummers on the road as well as the best violinist, spent Tuesday evening in Paulding, and some sweet music by himself and the boss guitarist, Lew Talbot, was the result. May Johnny live long to visit Paulding, is the earnest wish of the Democrat," says the Paulding Democrat.

"Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Creighton, who recently returned from Pittsburg, where Mr. Creighton has been in the employ of the Kerr Murray company, of that city, returned to their home at Fort Wayne, on Tuesday, and yesterday arrived in this place on a visit to the parents of Mrs. Creighton and her many relatives and friends. They are looking extremely well and their friends are pleased to see them," says the Warsaw Times.

To-morrow evening the Dalys will be at the Temple opera house in their new play entitled "Vacation, or Harvard vs. Yale." All the old favorites are with the company—Thomas and William Daly, the athletic collegians, Robert and Daniel Daly, the "Tigers," Miss Lizzie Daly and George W. Derious. The new candidates for popular favor are Miss Jennie Bartine, who in the part of "Virgie Vane of Vassar," makes a charming substitute for Miss Derious, and Miss Pauline Batchelder as "Viola Vincent," also of Vassar. Miss Julie Smith is excellent as "Della," the maid, and in company Mr. F. M. Kendrick, the "Protegeer," contributes to the fun making.

JUDGE JOHN MORRIS

Pays a Most Touching Tribute to
Vice President Hendricks.

"A large audience gathered at the court house at 1 o'clock Tuesday afternoon, to do honor to the memory of the deceased vice president of the United States, Thomas A. Hendricks," says the Lagrange Standard. Charles A. Brant was called to the chair, and the exercises were opened by an eloquent prayer by Rev. J. B. Carns. Judge John Morris, of Fort Wayne, was then called for. He spoke feelingly of the deceased, from a long acquaintance with him. He dwelt upon the prominence of Mr. Hendricks for nearly half a century, not only in Indiana, but among the statesmen of the nation. In all his high positions he had been true and faithful. Never had the speaker heard his honesty, integrity and faithfulness questioned. Nothing but purity attached to the memory of him we had met to honor, and no higher compliment could be paid to any man than that. So that to-day, when the people meet in sorrow, we need not wonder, for if any man in the past fifty years has been the idol of his party, and respected by his political opponents, that man was the late vice president. The secret of all this popularity was his great amiability of character, and his rare power of drawing to him and embracing the affection and good will of all. Even in the heat of political strife he did not fail to please his audiences, and even cause his opponents to wish that he might be with them. Pre-eminently he was a good man. Among us, it is said, it may well be said he was a great man, intellectually not inferior to any of Indiana's sons, and of that greatness men of all parties are equally proud and of his services equally grateful. He was wanting in one thing, that great will power, that made some of his contemporaries famous, but even this failing only made him stronger in the hearts of the people.

The SENTINEL collectors will call on subscribers to-morrow. We trust those in arrears will respond promptly.

did you join church? At what age did you begin Sabbath school work, and how do you make your interest manifest? The great majority of Sunday school officers and teachers among those present commenced before the age of eighteen years and too many were slow in making their interest manifest.

Gout, a painful disease affecting principally the fibrous tissues about the smaller joints, has various names, according to the parts affected, as podagra, when in the feet; chivassa, when in the hands, etc.; but whether the attack is first felt in the feet, the hands, or some other parts, rub with Salvation Oil at once. It annihilates pain. 1 rice 25 cents a bottle.

The Thatcher, Primrose & West minstrel party gave a faultless show to an average house, at the Temple opera house last night. The program was varied and of a pleasing character all through. Several local hits were appreciated. The singing, tumbling, dancing and acrobatic business was the finest. The party left for Lima this afternoon. They made no money here and there is a growing belief that the price of admission to these shows is too steep.

Master Mechanic Jacob Johann, formerly general master mechanic on the Wabash, now on the Chicago and Atlantic with headquarters at Huntington, took his general foreman, Brooks, from the Springfield shops to place him as assistant master mechanic at Huntington.

GEN. LOGAN

Was Offered the Senate Presidency.

By Telegram to The Sentinel. WASHINGTON, Dec. 4.—At a republican senatorial caucus held to-day the nomination of president pro tempore was unanimously tendered to Senator Logan, but he declined the nomination and thereupon the caucus adjourned.

The president to-day appointed Jas. W. Fureh, of Missouri, to be United States consul general at Mexico.

Senator Sherman presided. Senator Edmunds nominated Mr. Logan and moved he be elected by acclamation. This was done. Mr. Logan made a feeling speech of thanks, but declined, saying the place was not to his taste and he believed he could be more useful in his present position.

The president to-day appointed Nathaniel Newburgh, appraiser of merchandise at the port of Cincinnati, Ohio; Thomas J. Hamilton, of Washington territory, United States marshal for the territory of Washington.

WASHINGTON, D. C., December 3.—Secretary Bayard received to-day, a telegram from Mr. Buck, minister of the United States to Peru, informing him that, after three days fighting, in the streets of Lima, a truce was yesterday concluded, through the good offices of the diplomatic corps, Iglesias and Caceres both agreeing to renounce the executive power. Three commissioners from each side, will arrange for a provisional government.

CABINET MEETING. The cabinet met at the usual hour to-day, and remained in session about two hours. All the members were present except the secretary of the navy, who had gone to New York. The president's message and other matters to be submitted to congress, were considered.

Langford, of Walla Walla, to be associate justice of the supreme court of the territory of Washington; Chas. B. Pollard, of Delphi, Indiana, to be associate justice of the supreme court, of Montana.

REPORT OF THE SUPERVISING ARCHITECT.

A. M. Bell, supervising architect, in his annual report says there is now in course of construction, buildings ranging in cost from $25,000 to $200,000 each, calling for a total expenditure of $4,511,400. The expenditures for the year, on this account, have aggregated $2,438,709. Mr. Bell says that congress fixes the limits of the cost of buildings, without a full knowledge of the accommodations required, and that the limits in many cases are so low as to make it impossible to provide the minimum accommodation, even though the cheapest material be used. He suggests that before authorizing the construction of buildings, congress have estimates, through this bureau, of the cost of appropriate structures. This, he says, would expedite the work and save money.

Mexican Mud-ic.

By Telegram to The Sentinel.

St. Louis, December 3.—The following special to the Globe Democrat gives the latest news of the Mexican revolution:

Monterey. Nuñez Leona, Mexico. The independent party, so called, in Nuevo Leon, is gaining strength. It has published a paper in this city, in which General Lizaro Garza Ayala, the distinguished lawyer, is announced as its local president, and General Pedro Martinez, as vice-president. These eminent men, under the cover of legal procedure, bitterly oppose the present state government while Manuel Rodriguez, whose followers now number 600 men, unquestionably co-operating with them, has resorted to a more revolutionary measures and is in arms, having as heretofore stated, routed Maure Sepulveda, the ad interim governor at Garcia, and has advanced since to Soato Catarina, within seven miles of the state capital, where he is adding hourly to his forces. Montano Sepulveda has fallen back to the northward, has rallied his scattered forces, and has the promise of support at Bustamante, Velladoma and Lampasas. He is looked for at the former point to-night and great preparations are being made to give him a grand welcome at Lampasas. Col. Juan Fumazza, chief of the staff to Genl. Narango, will join Sepulveda with 500 men. However, before they can attack Rodriguez, he may acquire sufficient strength to take and occupy Monterey. The federal forces remain inactive still. It was believed that the general government intended to permit the disorder to remain until it would be clearly justified, by reason of the impotency of the state, to intervene and proclaim military rule, so as to get the state under the immediate control of the general government. Late advices, however, indicate that an understanding has been reached between General Garza Garcia Sr. Terano and Narango and Juarez Davila, now in Mexico City and the president.

THE RETURNS

Are Worked for a Little Satisfaction.

By Telegram to The Sentinel. LONDON, Dec. 4.—The Standard gives all hope of a tory majority. Its sole comfort is the reflection that Mr. Gladstone's majority will not be sufficient to enable him to safely handle the Irish question.

LONDON, December 3.—The Bulgarian government has sent another circular letter to the powers. It points out that Serbia first declared war; that after reverses, Bulgarian valor forced the Servians to retire to their own territory; that despite the armistice agreed to, the Servians continued hostilities against Widdin; and that it was owing to threats made by the Austrian minister at Belgrade, that Alexander agreed to the armistice and invited Serbia to appoint delegates to arrange matters. It asks the powers to appreciate the fact that Bulgarians when victorious, exercised moderation at the risk of enabling the Servians to recover their strength.

MEANS, December 3.—An order has been issued by the government appointing Colonel Harvalorech commander in chief of the Servian armies. In official circles it is thought that the resumption of hostilities is certain, owing to Prince Alexander's refusal of the terms proposed by Serbia. It is stated that fighting has already resumed.

Enoch Cox, store keeper of the Pittsburg store, was presented with a life size portrait of himself by a few of his many friends to-day as a recognition of his birth day. Enoch is forty-three years old to-day. To say he was delighted was drawing it mild.

HONOR ENOUGH.

Department Commander Foster Not a Candidate Again—The Work He Accomplished.

The annual meeting of the encampment of the Department of Indiana will be held at Indianapolis, February 17 and 18, 1886. Department Commander Foster refuses to allow his name to be used for re-election. Among those mentioned to succeed him are W. H. Armstrong, ex-mayor of Terre Haute, and Will C. Davis, of Indianapolis.

Under Department Commander Foster the Department of Indiana has reached a larger membership than ever before. It now numbers over 17,000 members in good standing. A gain of about 900 was made during the quarter ending September 30.

The Grand Army of the Republic has spent for the relief of needy comrades, during the past three years, the handsome sum of $700,000. Old soldiers who stand aloof from this magnificent organization, have had no part in this good work.

A NEW PHASE.

Lecherous Fellows Filling the Prison North.

Thirty-one new convicts were received at the northern penitentiary at Michigan City, during the month of November. Harry Frances remarks that a careful examination of the records of the prison, will disclose the fact that the heinous crimes of rape and incest are rapidly on the increase throughout Indiana, and more serious punishment than imprisonment should be prescribed for the offenders. Within the past month no less than five out of thirty-one criminals incarcerated at the penitentiary were convicted on these charges. While the aggregate term of twenty-two years for the above cases seem to be heavy enough in the minds of parents, such felons should be hung. A numeration would develop the fact that a surprisingly large percentage of the people are in favor of capital punishment for this offense.

Will H. Kernan, editor of the Northwood, (Da.) Headlight, sends us a copy of his paper with a poem, lamenting the death of Mr. Hendricks. Mr. Kernan turns over T. V. Powderly, of E. of L. fame. Kernan is a sarcastic as ever and his poems are just as tart as they used to be.

The Rev. Dr. Talmage has delivered a tender eulogy upon the life and character of Vice President Hendricks. Dr. Talmage can say things so nicely and his lecture on "Bright and Happy Homes," at the Temple in this city, December 15, will be a word picture from a master mind.

C. H. Aldrich has returned from Toledo, where he legally adjusted the differences between Hugh Houston & Co. and the Masonic Temple association. The Sentinel noted a month ago that the defaulting contractors would pay $5,000 and a week later told of the acceptance of the offer by the new Temple trustees.

Route Agent Hall Donly, of the Wabash, was in Indianapolis Friday, where he successfully passed his final examination and received a permanent certificate. He threw 1,950 postoffices in the state, in one hour and forty minutes, with but three errors, averaging a percent, almost perfect. This record is hard to excel.

"John Koeh, of Fred Eckart's pork packing house, Fort Wayne, one of the jolliest drummers on the road as well as the best violinist, spent Tuesday evening in Paulding, and some sweet music by himself and the boss guitarist, Lew Talbott, was the result. May Johnny live long to visit Paulding, is the earnest wish of the Democrat," says the Paulding Democrat.

"Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Creighton, who recently returned from Pittsburg, where Mr. Creighton has been in the employ of the Kerr Murray company, of that city, returned to their home at Fort Wayne, on Tuesday, and yesterday arrived in this place on a visit to the parents of Mrs. Creighton and her many relatives and friends. They are looking extremely well and their friends are pleased to see them," says the Warsaw Times.

To-morrow evening the Dalys will be at the Temple opera house in their new play entitled "Vacation, or Harvard vs. Yale." All the old favorites are with the company—Thomas and William Daly, the athletic collegians, Robert and Daniel Daly, the "Tigers," Miss Lizzie Daly and George W. Herkum. The new candidates for popular favor are Miss Jennie Bartine, who in the part of "Vivie Vane of Vassar," makes a charming substitute for Miss Derbans, and Miss Pauline Hetchelder as "Julia Vincent," also of Vassar. Miss Julie Smith is excellent as "Julia," the maid, and in company Mr. F. M. Kendrick, the "Professor," contributes to the fun making.

JUDGE JOHN MORRIS
Pays a Most Touching Tribute to
Vice President Hendricks.

"A large audience gathered at the court house at 1 o'clock Tuesday afternoon, to do honor to the memory of the deceased vice president of the United States, Thomas A. Hendricks," says the Lagrange Standard. Charles A. Brant was called to the chair, and the exercises were opened by an eloquent prayer by Rev. J. B. Carns. Judge John Morris, of Fort Wayne, was then called for. He spoke feelingly of the deceased, from a long acquaintance with him. He dwelt upon the prominence of Mr. Hendricks for nearly half a century, not only in Indiana, but among the statesmen of the nation. In all his high positions he had been true and faithful. Never had the speaker heard his honesty, integrity and faithfulness questioned. Nothing but purity attached to the memory of him we had met to honor, and no higher compliment could be paid to any man than that. So that to-day, when the people meet in sorrow, we need not wonder, for if any man in the past fifty years has been the idol of his party, and respected by his political opponents, that man was the late vice president. The secret of all this popularity was his great amiability of character, and his rare power of drawing to him and embracing the affection and good will of all. Even in the heat of political strife he did not fail to please his audience, and even cause his opponents to wish that he might be with them. Pre-eminently he was a good man. Among us, I deem, it may well be said he was a great man, intellectually not inferior to any of Indiana's sons, and of that greatness men of all parties are equally proud and of his services equally grateful. He was wanting in one thing, that great will power, that made some of his contemporaries famous, but even this failing only made him stronger in the hearts of the people.

A FEW SUGGESTIONS
To Interest Sunday School Workers Here.

The Wells County Sabbath School convention was opened Tuesday evening in the Presbyterian church with but few in attendance, but those present manifested deep interest. Mrs. Long, of Fort Wayne, and C. D. Meigs, of Indianapolis, Sunday school workers, were present and did some commendable work. The interrogation cards were first tried at this time and show some features of fact that would surprise many. The main points were: When did you join church? At what age did you begin Sabbath school work, and how do you make your interest manifest? The great majority of Sunday school officers and teachers among those present commenced before the age of eighteen years and too many were slow in making their interest manifest.

Cout, a painful disease affecting principally the fibrous tissues about the smaller joints, has various names, according to the parts affected, as podagra, when in the feet; chivawa, when in the hands, etc.; but whether the attack is first felt in the feet, the hands, or some other parts, rub with Salvation Oil at once. It annihilates pain. Price 25 cents a bottle.

The Thatcher, Primmer & Wren minstrel party gave a faultless show to an average house, at the Temple opera house last night. The program was varied and of a pleasing character all through. [Several local hits were appreciated. The singing, tumbling, dancing and acrobatic business was the finest. The party left for Lima this afternoon. They made no money here and there is a growing belief that the price of admission to these shows is too steep.
